

Charity Golf Day

Invitation

Dear Valued Clients and Business Associates,

Markey Insurance Brokers held our first Charity Golf Day in 2008 and your support made it possible for us to make a donation to Hunter Medical Research Institute and specifically for the research into asthma and its effects on young people.

Last year, our donation went to HPCA, a local action group which assists in awareness, information support and counseling for men with prostate cancer.

At Markey, over the past 12 months we have unfortunately experienced the effects of breast cancer, so we have made the decision to donate the proceeds from this year's golf day to supporting breast cancer research at HMRI. I am sure many of you are also close to someone directly affected.

We invite you to help us in trying to make a difference. You can support in the following ways:

- Sponsor a hole (includes golf for 4 players), or
- Enter a team of 4 or individual entries, or
- Simply make a donation.

All entries include golf, drinks, BBQ lunch, snacks and after golf BBQ. We look forward to sharing this event with you and thank you in anticipation for your support.

Many of you will know that our first Golf Charity Day was held after our organisation was impacted when one of our young and loved employees, Ryan Tomkins, died as a result of a severe asthma attack.

The outcome of the day not only raised awareness of the effects of asthma on our young, but it allowed us to make a donation of $40,000 to the Hunter Medical Research Institute. That day re-enforced that, like us, many others experience the loss of a friend and colleague and emphasised just how that loss affects individuals and the organisation.

Your enthusiasm for that day helped convince us that from now on, when we hold a charity event, the proceeds would go to a charity that does not have a high profile and where relevant, has touched our employees in some way.
